

Frequently Asked Questions

RIDING

- What is the minimum age? The minimum age for participants is 3 years.
- What is the maximum age? There is a maximum age for participants of 85 years.
- What is the maximum weight? In order to ensure the wellbeing of our horses, we have imposed a maximum weight restriction of approx. 80 kilos (dependent on the horses)
- What disabilities / special needs do we cater for? Our participants have a wide range of disabilities which include but are not limited to - Spina Bifida, Cerebral Palsy, Muscular Dystrophy, Multiple Sclerosis, Intellectual disabilities, Down Syndrome, Autism, Specific learning disabilities, Injuries resulting from accidents, Down Syndrome, Thalidomide, Visual and Hearing Impairments, Amputees, Special Needs, Acquired conditions such as Parkinson's Disease.
- How long are the sessions? Our sessions are 60 minutes in duration (including mounting and dismounting), however on the odd occasion, if we are understaffed by volunteers, the Coach reserves the right to split the session.
- Are riding sessions held over the school holidays? RDA Carine work during school terms only with no sessions held over holidays. However we do run occasional horse day camps over the holiday period.
- Are riding sessions held regardless of the weather conditions? Yes, regardless of the weather conditions, we hold sessions engaging with the horses. We will not put participants or volunteers at risk if the weather is harsh but will ensure sessions are held in a safe and protected environment. In extreme conditions, we may modify the session to accommodate the conditions for both horses and participants.
- Are assessments required? To participate at RDA Carine, an assessment is required to determine the level of ability to enable us to place the participant in a session with other participants of the same age / capability.
- Are medicals required? We require a comprehensive medical form to be completed before participants are permitted to commence. The medical form includes all medical conditions, past history, medication, emergency contacts etc. The medical report is required to be updated every three years unless there is a change of circumstance (i.e. medication; medical incidents etc) and / or deemed necessary to have annual reports.
- Are children/adults with Downs Syndrome permitted to ride? There is increasing evidence from medical research that up to 15% of individuals with Down syndrome have a condition known as Atlanto-axial Instability, which is a malalignment of cervical vertebrae C-1 and C-2 in the neck. This condition exposes individuals with Down syndrome to the possibility of injury if they participate in activities that hyper-extend or radically flex the neck muscles. The responsibility shall remain with the parent/guardian to provide proof that the individual has NOT been diagnosed as having Atlanto-axial Instability and shall be permitted to participate with RDA Carine.
- Can siblings ride? Unfortunately not as we do not have the capacity to take participants that do not have a disability.
- What do participants need to supply? Participants requested to supply their own gloves and to supply their own helmets (if possible)
- Are participants and volunteers insured? Yes, all of our participants and volunteers are insured under Riding for the Disabled Association of Australia policies. Copies of the Certificate of Currencies is available upon request
- What times are your sessions? Our 60 minute sessions are held Monday to Friday between the hours of 9am and 4pm (depending on the demand) and also on Saturday mornings between 9am and midday however on the odd occasion, if we are understaffed by volunteers, the Coach reserves the right to split the session.
- How many participants per session? 4 to 6

VOLUNTEERING

- Are our volunteers accredited? All of our volunteers hold current NDIS Worker Screening Checks OR Police Checks and Working with Children accreditation and are trained under RDA Carine coaches.
- Is there a minimum age for volunteers? Yes, it is currently 14 years of age.
- Do I need to be an Australian resident? Yes, to ensure we can complete all necessary compliance documentation.
- Do I have to volunteer on a permanent basis? We do encourage volunteers to participate on a weekly or fortnightly basis. We also ask for a minimum eighteen-month commitment.
- When are the programs held? The RDA Carine programs are held throughout the school term. We close for the school holidays but often hold a School Camp/s which require volunteers.
- What days can I volunteer? Any day from Monday to Friday anywhere between 8am and 5pm and then again on Saturday mornings from 8am to midday.
- Are there any rosters or schedules? We do not have rosters or schedules for our volunteers as we acknowledge that volunteers have busy lives and the day to day routines can change. We welcome volunteers to come and go as they please but do request a minimum of two hours.
- What accreditation do I need? All volunteers will be required to complete a NDIS Worker Screen Certification OR a Working with Children Check and a Volunteer National Police Clearance Check. RDA Carine will arrange on induction.
- What induction do I receive? All volunteers will be expected to commit to three trial sessions where you will be placed under the guidance of a current volunteer. The trial sessions are intended to determine if the potential volunteer is suited to the work and the potential volunteer is a good fit for the organisation. At any time, RDA Carine reserves the right to terminate your volunteer application if deemed unsuitable.
- Is there a probation period? Yes, after completing the three trials, and on receipt of all compliance documentation, you are permitted to commence the volunteer role under a three month probation period. At any time, RDA Carine reserves the right to terminate your volunteer role if deemed unsuitable.
- What training do I receive? During your trial days, you will be required to complete a series of training modules followed by a quiz and practical assessment. This is to ensure you can work safely around our participants and horses. RDA Carine also hold regular day and evening training sessions of numerous topics. The training sessions are compulsory.
- Who will my supervisor be? The Coach for the day will be responsible for all the volunteers.
- What shall I wear? We recommend long pants, closed in shoes or boots (not steel capped boots), SunSmart clothing (long sleeved shirts) cap or hat and jackets weather permitting. We also recommend fly nets during fly season.
- Am I supplied with a uniform? Volunteers have the opportunity to purchase a volunteer shirt for $25.00.
- What happens if I am unwell or going on holidays? That is no issue. Just a courtesy text message, email or call to let us know. We encourage our volunteers to go on holidays as family and work come before RDA Carine.
- Are participants and volunteers insured? Yes, all of our participants and volunteers are insured under Riding for the Disabled Association of Australia policies. Copies of the Certificate of Currencies is available upon request.
